200 See Lovelady-Wren Rites in Lutheran Church

In the presence of 200 guests, Miss Jean Carolyn Lovelady and Mr. John McDonald Wren exchanged matrimonial vows before the altar of the First Lutheran Church, June 8, at 2 p.m.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Lovelady, 1870 Gramercy Ave., and the benedict, son of Mrs. Louise Wren of 17220 S. Crenshaw Blvd. were married by Rev. Paul Wenske.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was beautifully gowned in an ankle-length white Chantilly lace over white satin dress. Her Chantilly lace tiara, embroidered with seed pearls, held a fingertip veil. In her hands she carried a white prayerbook with white orchids.

Sister of the bride, Miss Ione Lovelady, served as maid of honor and was dressed in an ankle-length pink net ensemble with large matching hat.

In similar gowns, but of various pastel shades, were the bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Antis of Torrance in violet, and Miss Lucille Sundale of Long Beach in lime.

A pink theme was augmented in the flowers of the maid of honor and bridesmaids.

Little Judy Ann Lovelady and Steven Wiecezorek, flower girl and ring bearer, preceded the bride and groom to the altar. Judy, niece of the bride, in a return they will live at 17220 pink ankle-length net gown, wore
